December 05, 2016

Home owners and tenants alike need to insure their properties against various types of damages. AC Insurance Services, a West Palm Beach, FL insurance broker, has announced that they now offer insurance specific for single family homes. To be able to offer these policies, they work with some of the country's best A-rated insurance providers.

"A home insurance policy covers most importantly the dwelling and your personal property," says Pete Steiner from AC Insurance Services. "We work together with various insurance providers rated for excellence on Demo Tech, to make sure our clients get the best policy for their needs and budgetary requirements. We ensure that all policies are tailored specifically to the needs of our clients, thereby also helping them to gain substantial savings on their policies."

Those who would like more information on the insurance provided are encouraged to contact AC Insurance Services for further information through their website, or via telephone. Additionally, they are welcome to attend the West Palm Springs office directly, in order to have a face to face consultation about their needs. It is also possible to obtain a free, no obligation quotation through the company's website, which can enable people to get a general idea on what they are likely to get.
