

AC Insurance Services Offers Free Quotes On Car Insurance

August 07, 2015

West Palm Beach, FL based company, AC Insurance, has announced that they are offering free quotes on Car Insurance through an instant auto quote feature on the company website. Those within the state of Florida are required to have a minimum of $10,000 toward personal injury protection and $10,000 toward property damage liability before they can drive their vehicle. AC Insurance has stated that they comply with these guidelines and wish to protect their clients to the best of their ability.

When Florida residents purchase car insurance, the personal injury protection coverage is used to cover individuals in the case of an accident no matter who is to blame. It pays 80% of the expenses accrued by medical costs and 60% of wages lost due to injuries sustained. The property damage liability coverage is to pay for damage to another individual's vehicle in the case of an accident. By utilizing the free quote service offered by AC Insurance, drivers can now see what it will cost them to obtain both of these types of coverage, along with comprehensive and collision protection.

The company invites all those interested in learning more about the required insurance coverage in the state of Florida, and about AC Insurance as a business, to visit them at <http://myacis.com/free-quotes/>. Aside from gaining access to a free quote on auto insurance, site visitors can also take the time to check previous customer reviews and ratings. Currently the listed testimonials reflect a highly positive reaction to rates and service, with one happy customer stating, "I researched all insurance company quotes for the best deal; and I found some great rates. Peter Steiner beat them all from auto to property to commercial. I was so impressed with not only the rates but the customer service and the client contact."

The free quote service offered by AC Insurance goes hand in hand with their other premium customer service incentives such as their informative blog. The blog covers a number of subjects regarding to auto and home insurance, and each post provides an easily accessible option for accessing a free quote in that particular field of insurance. Whether customers are visiting the site for the first time or checking out a new blog update, the free quote offer is always available to them.
